THE DURATION OF PARLIAMENTARY SESSIONS.

A serious matter and one which can only be remedied by Parliament itself (save it may be by the pronounced verdict or overt agitation of the press and people) is the duration of the sessions of our Dominion Parliament. It is growing worse year after year and the evil should be eradicated ere it has spread too far, or become too deeply rooted to be capable of a cure.

The needlessly long sessions are not wholly the fault of the Government. The obstruction of the oppositionists is chiefly the cause of these long, and to the country expensive sessions. Take for instance the present session. By discussing absurd resolutions by the introduction of measures, for forms sake, which were subsequently withdrawn by the aggravating and nonsensical objections and obstructions of the opposition, the session has been prolonged to a much greater length than was necessary for the dispatch of the legitimate business of the House.

This "playing ball in the House" if we may use the term, will not be much longer tolerated by the people of Canada. To read the speeches of some members, one would suppose that they went to Ottawa for fun, and for the purpose of making humorous speeches for the amusement of their fellow members.

During all this time the country is bearing the expense of maintaining an immense legislative body at Ottawa.

Parliament this year has now lasted over three months without any special reason, and without very much to show for it. The Government has had its business ready as promptly as Governments are in the habit of doing, and more quickly than some others we know of, and the major portion of the blame for the delay can, without stretching criticism, be fairly placed on the loquacity of the Opposition. The Grit party is famous for its talking propensities. Neither in nor out of office has it ever a law making party. It initiates rounds of theories mirrored in the pages of Hansard, and very little else.

Some sessions of our Parliaments have been reasonably brief and marked by a good deal of intelligence and dispatch, but the great majority of the sessions are, for the reasons mentioned, needlessly long. There have been long sessions, but usually with some ground, work of fair excuse. The long session of 1880-81 was due to the desire to get on quickly with the Canadian Pacific Railway, an effort which time has abundantly justified. In 1885 the uncertainty attendant upon the rebellion in the Northwest, and the passage of the Franchise Act might be urged as some reason for a prolongation of that session.

But we repeat again the great majority of the Parliamentary Sessions are of too long duration. To quote from a contemporary in this regard:—

"The science of dawdling over public business is a vice that readily grows upon legislative bodies. It appears to be now an established rule in the Imperial Parliament and United States Congress to file as long to transact public business as the circumstances will permit. Amongst other consequences this has resulted in making the British Parliament too expensive a place for anyone but a man of large means, while the case of professional politicians in the United States has been enormously augmented by the sort of permanent job which a man obtains when he is elected to serve a term in Congress."

The error should be remedied before such a state of affairs exists in our Canadian Parliament. Our members are not men who should be a sort of business of politics. They, as a rule, are not men of independent means. They have their business to attend to at home, and therefore every member of the House, including the oppositionists, should be interested in seeing that the business of the House is despatched in a business-like way and the session made as brief as possible.

This would undoubtedly be to the interests of every member, and would also be a great saving of expense to the country.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Lady Aberdeen, who is well known in Manitoba and the North West, a short time ago presided at the annual meeting of the Women's Liberal Federation. The membership of this association, numbering 30,000 consists of the wives, sisters and daughters of the leading politicians of Great Britain. The annual meeting was held in the Memorial Hall Farringdon street, London, England. This Federation has an especial interest to Canadians as the majority of its members are striving for women's suffrage. True it is that Mrs. Gladstone and Lady Aberdeen are not in favor of this movement and several ladies have withdrawn from the Association in consequence of the majority desiring to make the female franchise an authorized plank in the Liberal platform. Both Lady Aberdeen and Mrs. Gladstone were expected to withdraw, but their good sense showed them that it was unnecessary, and as a reward the extremists have agreed to waive their original demand and in lieu thereof passed a resolution as follows:—

"That they shall promote the enfranchisement for both local and parliamentary elections, of all women, married, single or widows, who possess any legal qualifications as entitle men to vote while not making it a test question at the approaching general election."

Miss Butler of Ipswich who declared herself a descendant of Oliver Cromwell, declared that what they wanted was a moderate and temperate party and expressed her conviction that women would get the franchise "when they were fit for it." Here in Canada we can echo Miss Butler's words and while we have in municipal elections a certain degree of women's suffrage, so that spinsters and widows can vote in respect to their property still there is considerable agitation for a female franchise on the terms proposed by the motion just quoted, and we feel sure all women will get the full franchise "when they are fit for it." Mr. Gladstone issued a pamphlet attacking the suffrage movement but evidently regrets it for as Lady Carlisle said Mr. Gladstone knows "that thirty thousand women are valuable allies, if they are good allies, undoubtedly they are more formidable, when converted into implacable foes." We therefore expect that England before long will pass an act granting a limited or conditional female suffrage with a property qualification.

There would seem to be no just ground for excluding widows and spinsters, who have the necessary property qualifications from exercising the franchise. For in such a case, we have taxation without representation the very same state of affairs, as caused the secession of the United States from Great Britain.

In Ontario, Mr. Mowat, in his wisdom has granted the franchise to these classes of females in municipal matters and the experiment is most satisfactory. It has had a healthy and purifying effect in municipal politics.

This slight concession is but the dawn of a brighter day for women in the domain of politics.

Politics are growing stale and wearisome, under the worn-out rule of man. The introduction of women into the political sphere will rejuvenate, this state of affairs.

Man has too long kept the female sex in the background though it must be admitted her faculties are equal and in many cases superior to those of man.

The advantages they now enjoy of higher education, and the means at their disposal of mastering the political questions of the day points to the advisability of allowing the classes at least, that we have mentioned to have a voice in the making of those laws which they are bound to obey, and many of which affect their property either by way of taxation or otherwise.

Man is a peculiar beast, and zealous of forms no small part of his character but—

Women, then are loftier far than man. He but grovels on the earth, seeking subsistence, But thou with higher hopes, and purer thoughts Will purify base politics.

THE BEHRING SEA ARBITRATION.

It must be gratifying to all true Canadians to be informed that our able statesman and eminent lawyer Sir John Thompson has been appointed by the British Government to represent Canada on the Behring Sea arbitration, to be held at Paris.

The liberal Policy of the Home Government in consulting Canada in all treaties and arbitrations which may affect her interests, and thereby giving to Canada almost the status of an Independent State is alike gratifying and must be appreciated, by the people of this country.

Unquestionably no better selection could be made than Sir John.

The arbitration will commence its proceedings in Paris sometime this year, and although the case of Canada, is a strong one, it will nevertheless require an able constitutional lawyer to support and advocate it. Further the Canadian view should have the advantage of one who has had experience in diplomacy and who has also an intimate knowledge of the subject matter of the controversy.

In the most eminent degree, Sir John possesses this qualification and this knowledge. We doubt if another man in Canada could be found who could better fill the position.

To quote from a contemporary in this regard, "In all the diplomatic discussions of the past few years he has borne a leading part, and in every case has exhibited a mastery of the question, a soundness of argument, an intrepid zeal in maintaining his ground, which have secured important advantages for Canada. In the fishery conference of 1888, where Canada secured a fair and equitable treaty, the services of the Minister of Justice were recognized by the Queen with an honor as well bestowed as it has been worthily won. In the vital question of whether one portion of British America could make a trade treaty with the United States regardless of the rest of the Empire, we know, from state documents lately made public, how ably Canada's contention has been argued by Sir John Thompson, with the result that the Imperial authorities have finally and definitely decided in our favor."

With Lord Dufferin and Sir John Thompson watching the arbitration in our interests at Paris we may rest assured that our rights will be fully protected.

SCOTTISH MONUMENT TO THE LATE ALEXANDER MACKENZIE.

It has been reported that steps are being taken in Scotland by the residents of the deceased statesman's birthplace, to erect some substantial monument to his memory.

It is said that a bridge across the Tay has been suggested, but as yet it would appear that the nature of the memorial has not been definitely decided but has been left to a committee to determine.

The residents of his birthplace have watched his rise, and his career as a statesman, and desire to show their appreciation of the honesty, ability and patriotism of their townsman of years ago. His honesty of purpose, his character all must admire. His motto ever was "Country before party." He was a "grand old man" and is entitled even as much as Gladstone considering his limited sphere of action to this pseudonym.

As the years go by it will become more and more apparent that, whatever may be thought of the policy he adhered to, Alexander Mackenzie's character made him a success; and that a politician, however good the policy may be which he supports, is, if he is corrupt, more or less of a failure according as he is more or less corrupt. For, whether he aims at honor for himself or happiness, or the good of his country, unscrupulousness brings failure. The corruptionist can not in the long run get any real honor; real happiness can never be attained by any one who disregards right; and he who debauches the political conscience of his country works its evil which outweighs any good his policy may do.

We hope a lasting Scottish Monument may be erected to the memory of a man whose character and statesmanship is admired by all Canadians.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

It is the intention of the Government to drop the redistribution of Quebec and Ontario until next session, and proceed only with the redistribution of British Columbia, Manitoba, New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island.

Mr Davins attention having been drawn to the many reports that he would follow Royal as Lieutenant Governor of the Territories, said in answer to a quidnunc "In the first place I am not an aspirant for any such position. No consideration of money or dignity could induce me to give up a position where I am of some service to become a mere figure head."

A recent speech by the Earl of Dufferin on "Reciprocity with Canada" brought out the statement that as a buyer of British goods "one Canadian was worth 23 Russians or three citizens of the United States, and one Australian was worth 90 Russians or 12 citizens of the United States." No wonder that preferential trade is gaining ground in Britain.

United States free traders do not like Lord Salisbury. The London correspondent of The New York Times pictures him as "that remarkable medieval compound of great noble, bookman, charlatan and cynic, whom a satirical fate has given to the fin de siècle Tory party as leader." Perhaps a British Premier is not any the worse for being disliked by his country's competitors and opponents.

The vigor and energy which is being displayed by Mr. Gladstone at the age of 83 was probably never surpassed. If he succeeds in speaking at every hamlet in Middlethian, as he desires to do, without injury to his health, he will have well earned the right to be called a wonderful old man. The only comparison which offers itself is the marvellous activity which Sir John Macdonald displayed before the last general election, but which led to such a sorrowful ending.

At the Republican convention at Minneapolis on June 11th inst. President Harrison was renominated for the Presidency on the first ballot which stood: Harrison 5354, Blaine 1824, McKinley 182, Reid 4, Lincoln 1.

There were many wild scenes during the afternoon. When Blaine was nominated there was thirty minutes cheering and so when Harrison was named. Whitehead Reel of the New York Tribune was unanimously chosen as candidate for Vice-President, and the convention adjourned.

Lord Rosebery at Glasgow the other day advised his hearers to avoid both Socialism and Individualism as a whole, but to borrow something of the spirit of each and thus get the best qualities of each. "Borrow from Socialism its large conception of common effort, its vigorous conception of municipal life, and from Individualism take or rather preserve its spirit of self respect and self-reliance in all practical affairs." This, indeed, is good advice. Take the best of everything that tends to elevate and be moderate in all things; using, indeed, the honey from every flower and blossoms of life, and avoiding all that contaminates oneself or injures others.

Mr. Watkins' Illness.

We are pleased to announce that since our last publication, Mr. Watkins' condition has somewhat improved, so much so, that his father left on Tuesday for his home at Medicine Hat. Mr. Watkins' sister still continues with him. Although the patient is still weak, we hope in our next issue to be able to announce that he has taken a decided turn for the better. Dr. Turnbull is a constant attendant at his bedside and has done all that medical science can do, to assist in the recovery of his patient.

Methodist Ministerial Changes.

The following changes in the fields of Methodist Ministers as decided by the Conference whose labors have just closed in Winnipeg will be of interest to our readers.

Dr. McLean, late pastor of the Methodist Church here, has been located at Est. Portage; Rev. Mr. Steacy, B. A. of Prince Albert will be stationed at Moose Jaw. Rev. Mr. Harrison, late of Regina, has been appointed to the pastorate of Wesley Church, Winnipeg. Regina will be supplied by Rev. Mr. Browne B. A. Rev. Mr. Hanna remains at Medicine Hat. Rev. Mr. Musselman has been stationed at Wascana.

On Wednesday next, June 22nd, there will be a social in or near Wesley church. The pastor Dr. McLean, is about to leave for Est. Portage Ont., and it was thought desirable to hold a gathering of this kind before his departure. In the afternoon there will be games and amusements, tea from 5 o'clock to 6.30, and in the evening entertainment consisting of speeches etc.—Com.

Rev. Mr. Nicolle of Medicine Hat was in Moose Jaw on Tuesday evening last on his way to Qu'Appelle to attend the Diocesan Synod. Rev. Mr. Brown, Mr. T. B. Baker and Mr. Nicolle of English Village, left by the same train for the same purpose. They returned yesterday morning. Mr. Baker states that his business was transacted by the Synod, save ordinary routine work. He, however, states that the Bishop informed the delegates that he had tendered his resignation and intended to return to England. His illness in this regard was very affecting. Considerable discussion has taken place regarding the closing of St. John's College. Until the Bishop's successor is appointed, however, no definite action will be taken in the matter. It is to be hoped that the college will be continued as no doubt it is but a nucleus of a future University.

The Crops.

From every portion of the Moose Jaw district we receive nothing but the most encouraging reports as to the condition of the crops, notwithstanding the backwardness of the spring and the delay in seeding operations by rainy weather. The recent rains and the present warm weather have caused a vigorous vegetation and the grain is now growing with astonishing rapidity. It is said that the crops are now as far advanced in growth as they usually are at this time of the year. The alternate sunshine and rain which we have just experienced gave an impetus to growth, that is most noticeable.

The farmers are all smiles. May nothing occur to mar their pleasant countenances.

Dominion Day Celebration.

On Monday evening a most enthusiastic and representative meeting of citizens was held at this office to arrange for a programme of sports for Dominion Day. Among those present we noticed Messrs. Calder, Forster, Meller, Bole, Dr. Turnbull, Crosbie, McDonald, Melhuish, Blackburn, Ostrander, Simington, Wright Bros. Slater, Battell, Holt, Annable and about thirty others. Mr. R. L. Alexander was appointed chairman, and Mr. W. J. Nelson secretary. After a general discussion in reference to the subject matter of the celebration, a committee consisting of Messrs. Nelson, Wright, Meller, Calder, Battell, Alexander, Crosbie and Blackburn, was appointed to arrange the list of sports and the prizes to be awarded for the same. Mr. Crosbie was appointed Treasurer of the fund. It appeared from the subscription list that over $200.00 had been subscribed by the citizens and there is every probability that the amount ere long will reach $300.00. The greatest interest is being taken in the matter by the citizens and all seem determined to make Dominion day one of the greatest possible enjoyment to the people of Moose Jaw. Messrs. Crosbie, McDonald and Melhuish were appointed as a committee to interview the Council, then sitting with a view of obtaining the grant of a sum of money towards prizes for the different events on that day. The committee subsequently reported that they had every assurance that the Council would grant at least $25.00 towards the fund. After the adjournment of the general meeting, the committee on sports and prizes met, and arranged a programme of sports and the prizes to be awarded in conjunction with the same. On Tuesday evening another meeting was held at the same place, when the committee's report on sports and prizes, was approved with slight amendments. The programme arranged consists of base ball, cricket, lacrosse, athletic sports, shooting, horse racing etc. Everything points to the fact that this celebration of Dominion day, will be a credit to the citizens of Moose Jaw and that it will be a day of amusement that will long be remembered by them. All that is required to make the sports a success is fair weather.

PUBLIC HALL.

To the Editor of the Times.

Sir,—

It is now generally understood that the town hall is to be converted into a business block and erected on the corner of Main and River streets, the council having, I understand, bought a part of a lot from our enterprising townsman Mr. G. M. Annable.

No doubt the council are conscientious in their actions in doing this, being supported by some of the rate payers, but I think, if the agreement and conditions of the sale and the kind of a building they are going to erect (according to reports) were made public, that these same ratepayers who supported the idea of a business block instead of a town hall would change their minds materially.

I also think if they (the council) would read the by-law passed on the 5th of last September, they would see that it calls for much more than they intend to build and perhaps a little legal light on the subject might benefit them more than they are aware of.

I will just quote a portion of the by-law as pertaining to the town hall. "Three thousand dollars for the erection of a two story brick building in the said town to accommodate the said fire engine and a caretaker therefore with provisions for a council chamber, a Clerk's and Treasurer's office and the second story thereof for a Public Hall."

Now sir, did the ratepayers vote for this or did they vote for the money to be expended in erecting a business block as is now intended by the present council? Again did the parties who bought our debentures not purchase them on the strength of this same by-law and advance the money for the purpose mentioned in said by-law, and not to build a business block.

If we are going to have a public hall let us by all means have one that can be available not for town municipal purposes alone but that will be available to our farmer friends to hold their meetings in such as Agricultural meetings, Farmers Institute Meetings, Board of Trade meetings etc., and not be so selfish as to simply have it for town purposes alone or to be rented out to private parties as an investment.

In conclusion I would say for the ratepayers of our town to consider well the action the Council are taking and also for the Council to "be sure they are right and then go ahead."

Yours truly,

PUBLIC HALL.

THE MANITOBA ELECTIONS.

The Election campaign has commenced in earnest. Greenway, the Conservative leader of the Government has all his available forces in the field and the battle is waging fiercely.

The opposition leader, Mr. Roblin, with his Lieutenant General N. F. Hagel Q. C. are also in the field in hot pursuit of the enemy.

The decisive battle will be fought shortly. The conjectures as to who will be victorious in the strife are many.

The better opinion seems to be that the Government will be sustained although many, whose opinions are entitled to great weight, believe that Mr. Roblin will defeat the Government at the Polls, and thus be entrusted with the formation of a new ministry.
